

Please support the petition from No-Code International by eliminating the morse code requirement as stated by Part 97 of the FCC regulations. CW is just a mode for communications and is no more important or valuable than any other amateur radio mode.